STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITIES
WITH
THE STUDY ABROAD OFFICE

www.yale.edu/studyabroad
Where can I go?

• Choose from more than 200 programs around the world

• Courses offered in English & host-country language

• Programs vary in structure
When can I go?

- Any summer
- Second semester of Sophomore year
- Either semester of junior year
Why go abroad as a Second-Semester Sophomore?

- Two years left at Yale when you return
- Experience abroad will impact academic and extracurricular choices upon return
- May be easier with some majors
Overview of Study Abroad Options
YSS Faculty-led Study Abroad

- Study abroad with faculty during the summer on a language or non-language program.
- Sessions range from 4-10 weeks.
- Programs are for Yale credit and are ISA eligible for qualified students.
The Global Summer Program

- Study abroad with students from International Alliance of Research Universities.
- Courses taught in English. Some are ISA eligible and some are eligible for transfer credit.
- Funding options available for some programs.
- GSP course here at Yale.
Yale in London

• One spring term session and two six-week summer sessions every year
• Courses are taught by both Yale Faculty and British faculty from various UK institutions
• Courses generally cover history, literature, history of art/architecture, drama, and sociology
• All courses earn Yale credits
• All Yale undergraduates are eligible, regardless of major
Year or Term Abroad (YTA) & Summer Designated Programs

- Programs that are not run by Yale, but have been designated as eligible for general Yale credit
  - Year: 9 credits
  - Semester: 4 credits
  - Summer: 2 credits
- Credit toward major awarded by department
How do I find programs?

www.yale.edu/studyabroad
What about the cost?

• Financial aid will transfer for semester programs

• International Summer Award (ISA)
  (More on that from Fellowship Programs…)
